March 5, 2010

Maharashtra Mandal of Detroit
ATTN: Ms. Anjali Vale - Vice President

Dear Ms. Vale,

On behalf of the Bharatiya Temple please consider this letter as our formal invitation to all members of Maharashtra Mandal of Detroit to join us on Tuesday, March 16, 2010 for Vikruti – Vedic New Year celebrations. This event also known variously as Vikruti Ugadi, Gudi Padwa, Hindu New Year, Chaitra Navaratra, or Cheti Chand presents an excellent forum to celebrate our heritage. We appreciate your ongoing support to the temple and are proud to be of service to the Indian community in the Greater Detroit area along with you. As always we want to further the bond between our two organizations and feel that this event presents a great opportunity for us to come together and celebrate auspicious event together. We hope that you and your member body will participate and hope to see everyone. Our program for the day begins with a Ganesh Puja followed by a Sarva Devata Puja in the morning and in the evening with Vishnu Sahasranama Parayana along with Sri Shastriji and Sri Bhatji and then followed by Panchanga Sravanam. The program will conclude with Aarti.

Please feel free to contact our temple office at (248) 879 – 2552 for additional information or you may visit our website www.bharatiya-temple.org for program information.

Once again thank you for your support and kind consideration, we look forward to us celebrating UGADI together at The Bharatiya Temple.

Sincerely,

Anand Vardarajan & Nayan Patel
Co-Chairs for the 2010 Religious Committee
